DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1 and 12-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sato et al (U.S. 2003/0168836).

3. With respect to claims 1-32, 4, and 12-13 Tanase et al discloses an occupant protection device comprising an airbag that is inflated with gas from an inflator (15) at a side of an occupant to protect the body of the occupant from the shoulder to the lumbar, the airbag (16) having substantially the same vertical dimension as that of a seat back (11), wherein the airbag has a first region (17, as best seen in figure 2) that is thinner than other regions in a vehicle width direction in the inflated state, the first region (17) being disposed substantially at the center of the airbag in the vertical direction and extending substantially parallel to the seat back; the first region that is thin in the vehicle width direction in the inflated state is divided into sections in the vertical direction, and a gas passage (20) is provided between the section; wherein the airbag includes an inflatable body (18) at the bottom of the airbag; the inflatable body being inflated at the side of the thigh of the occupant, wherein the airbag is folded such that an upper portion and a lower portion are placed on a center portion and is then rolled in a front to rear direction of the vehicle.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 2-3 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1 and 4 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
